Gospel Reflections 26th Sunday September 25th 2022

Go, you are sent!

These are final words at Mass, when you are sent out to the world, just as Our Lord directed.

The early church spoke Latin so they would say Ite, Missa est, meaning Go! You are sent! They named the entire event after the Latin word Missa meaning “sent” which later became our English word Mass.

Our Lord wanted Mass to both strengthen your soul ...and send you out to change the world. You have a powerful mission!

Today’s Gospel portrays a rich man who never even notices a poor man outside his door. His rich life made no difference to those around him. That must never be said of you. Your time at Mass is meant to send you into the world to make it better!

Just after World War II, Pope Pius XII was deeply troubled. Twice in his lifetime he saw the entire world at war, in World War I and again in World War II. Something was wrong! He sensed that Mass was having no practical effect! He believed that if you were the same person at the end of Mass as you were at the beginning of Mass...well, you had not really been to Mass!

Pope Pius and later Pope John XXIII knew that meeting Our Lord changes everything for the better ... and Mass was where that meeting would take place. They wanted to remove anything that got in the way of your meeting Our Lord and so Mass is now said in local languages.

That is why the purpose of every Mass is to authentically meet the Lord. Our focus is always on Him there.

Before Mass, our focus is on the tabernacle, where Our Lord is reserved in the Eucharist. During Mass, our focus is on Jesus at the altar, in the scriptures, and especially at the consecration, when the priest changes the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Our Lord. After communion, where is Our Lord to be found? ...He is now within you! You should immediately focus on His presence within yourself and nowhere else.

That is why immediately after receiving communion we sit or kneel in personal, private, and prayerful contemplation to speak to Our Lord who is now within us.

Ask Him how you can be different in each of your day’s events. With His wisdom now within you ...Go! ...you are sent into the world!

God bless!

Urgent Need for Extraordinary Ministers of the Homebound!

Imagine a time in your life in which you could not attend Sunday Mass or receive the Body of Christ. I speak for myself when I say it may have felt empty and I was thirsting and hungry to be nourished by the sacred gift of receiving Holy Communion. The Ministry of the Sick and Homebound is blessed to be called to visit our brothers and sisters in bringing Jesus to them or should I say Jesus brings us to them! MoHB are trained to visit those who are too sick or elderly to attend Mass. After serving in this ministry for many years I realize not only is it a great privilege to do this for others, but those we visit bless us so much more. Some are lonely and waiting for a loving face to pray with them and share the Gospel, but most of all to receive the Body of Christ. All ministers are carefully trained and mentored for as long as necessary. All I ask is that you discern this ministry and if you feel called or just a little interested, please contact the parish center and leave a message for Toni Clark. Thank you and God bless.

Safeguard the Children

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents helping parents

Some parents seem to struggle with, or just do not understand the importance of being on time for school or for pick-up at the end of a team practice. Children and other parents notice persistent tardiness and concerns about possible neglect may arise. In today's climate, a well-meaning parent who steps in to assist with offers to drop-off or pick-up another child may, even under the best of circumstances, become suspect for showing "too much" interest in a child who is not theirs. It is important to find ways to engage parents on such important responsibilities early on. One way to start the process is by inviting them to come together to talk about issues and to brainstorm policies and solutions. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Parents who don't quite 'get it,'" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/. Read the VIRTUS® article, "Parents who don't quite 'get it,'" here.
