Gospel Reflections Easter Sunday March 31st 2024

How far would you go to rescue people you love?

The first Easter was the happy conclusion to a tragic week.

On Thursday, Jesus gathered His disciples at the Last Supper, where he said the same Mass that we say today. Our Lord gets up to humbly wash His disciple's feet from the dust common to people walking around town, even while knowing His closest friends would soon betray Him.

Next, He travels with His disciples to the Garden of Gethsemane where He is soon arrested and taken to local religious and government officials for trial. All His disciples run away. He is then falsely accused of various crimes and sent to Pilate, the Roman Governor, for execution.

He is violently whipped and tortured and then given a heavy cross to carry to His long and painful crucifixion.

Who would endure all this? Only someone for whom love can never be stopped by anything other people do. Jesus never lets other people's lack of love affect His love for you. He was willing to go through all this suffering to offer you a path to your lasting happiness.

Today we see bad behavior around the world, maybe even in your world. Do you feel like losing hope? Jesus never did. Nor should you.

Jesus was on a mission of love and He would never let anyone get in the way of His showing it. Even while surrounded by evil people He remained true to His mission to love. That is your task as well today.

Never let anyone's lack of love affect your love.

Famous saints have met challenges like this in history, and some even died for their faith, but only one person in all of human history has ever risen from the dead. That means Jesus is from God. That means He is worth taking seriously. The kind of love that Jesus offers can never be stopped by human evil.

This is the life to learn!

Our world now seems tragically at a loss of love. Thank God Jesus has the answer to save it.

We often say this beautiful phrase today. "Have a Happy Easter." It means to have that happiness now. Our faith is not nostalgia for the past, but having the person of Jesus with you today. Decide today to make this life of Jesus a daily practice every day, every week ...and all year long!

Have a Happy Easter!

God bless!

Safeguard the Children DID YOU KNOW?

Abuse may be hiding behind positive behavioral changes. Last week, we looked at negative behavioral changes that could be red flags for abuse. It is important for caregivers to remember that some seemingly positive changes could also be signs of abuse, such as when a child tries to "be perfect" so as to avoid a feared consequence or in some way "control" circumstances so as to avoid or minimize further exposure to a traumatic situation. To learn more, read the VIRTUS® article "Being Attentive to Children and Youth" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
