Gospel Reflections for the 28th Sunday October 14th 2018

Religious freedom

It seems political campaigns never end!

Politicians often hope to have an event or speech that changes everything and guarantees victory on Election Day. Jesus had that chance in today's Gospel, but it did not turn out well.

Jesus already had a great reputation. He is "polling" well! He enters a town accompanied by a large crowd when a well-known rich young man approaches with a question about eternal life.

This was Our Lord's chance to impress the crowd by converting this influential young man. If Jesus could produce a victory here, His fame would spread even faster.

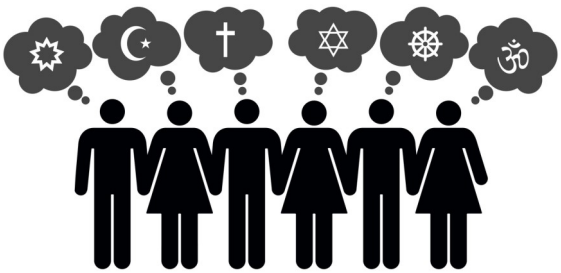
He answers the man's question clearly and concisely, however, it does not work …and the rich young man walks away. What is interesting is what Jesus does next, which is …nothing! He does not run after him seeking to make yet another case for conversion. He respects the man's religious freedom to decide for himself. Jesus is both sad and looks at him with love, but would not interfere with his free and personal decision.

In the parable of the Lost Sheep, Jesus the Good Shepherd goes after a lost sheep because it wants to come home but just does not know how. The rich young man was not lost. He had just had eternal life clearly explained to him by Jesus Himself …and he rejected it.

We do not know for certain what became of that young man, but many bible scholars today believe that this rich young man in the Gospel of Mark, is actually …Mark himself! They believe that at some later time Mark changed, and came back to the Lord, and then years later wrote his own story of that first meeting where Jesus respected his freedom into his Gospel.

Religious freedom is in the news a lot these days, whether about Muslims, Jews, and Christians in the Middle East, or a new Supreme Court Justice.

I know parents sometimes struggle with older children who seek another religious path at times (especially after just one year at college!). It is hard to make general guidelines because each case is so unique. But this Gospel makes a good case for religious freedom for adults, and that when we are allowed to be free; it is more likely that we will eventually come around to the truth, perhaps just like Mark, the rich young man.



God bless!

Listen to Relevant Radio every day on Station KHJ, AM 930. I lead the Rosary at 5:00 PM, Monday thru Friday.

Safeguard the Children

DID YOU KNOW?

Mutual Respect is Key for Friendships

Your child will make many friends throughout his lifetime. As children grow, their interests change and develop, and they meet many new people along the way. But as children make new friends, mutual respect should be the guiding principle of these relationships. Parents, talk to your children about how they should feel in a friendship — true friends care about each other and respect each other's thoughts and feelings and personal boundaries. If your child isn't receiving respect from her friends, she is learning to accept less than she deserves in a relationship. And if she is the one who doesn't give respect to her friends, she is learning emotional power. For more information on teaching your children about true friendships, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

For these we pray:

Joan Bibeau, Chelsea Broady, Donna Broady, Celia Castellano, Becky Cleary, Sylvia Delgadilla, Brandon De Mott, Gina Dolby, Al Fisher, Sally Marie Fountila, Cindy Frequez, Phyllis Frye, Samuel Garcia, London Hazlett, Rose Marie Hefner, Kevin Kettles, Myrna Ledesma, Victor & Imelda Ledesma, Don Lee, Vickey Liebert, Margaret Loughner, Theresa Magula, Rosalind Martinez, Raul & Rosie Martinez, Martinez Family, Mrs. Mc Pherson, Betty Noonan, June & Paul Overbeck, Lourdes Palmares, Larry Palmer, Dolores Parks, Nikki Pearce, Roger Pitchard, Lauryn Rafferty, Barbara Recchia, Cathy Roberts, Anthony Stremple, Susan Wertz and Dr. Peter Witek.
