Gospel Reflections 16th Sunday July 17th 2022

Do you like Martha ...or Mary?

Today's Gospel can start an argument! It describes two opposite ways of living our faith.

Jesus is a guest in the home of two sisters who behave in very different ways. Martha is busy with hospitality chores while Mary is quietly listening to Jesus. Which one is doing the right thing? Is Mary just lazy ...or wise? Is Martha more responsible ...or too busy?

This issue mirrors a problem in the early Church, and maybe in your life today. What is the right balance between quiet prayer and active social ministry?

Jesus actually does not take sides but transcends both actions with a profound teaching.

Neither action nor prayer are valid unless each is done as a personal calling from God. What makes our behavior right is that it is in response to God's personal call to you.

Jesus does not correct Martha for being busy. After all, He often encouraged people to be active. Yet He is concerned that Mary is not happy in her work, and even more concerned with the nature of her request about Mary. Anytime your prayer begins with the words, "Lord, what you need to do is..." Well ...you are telling the Lord what to do rather than respond to His call!

Both Mary and Martha are called to be responsible, in that word's original meaning; to have a response to a calling from God. Both public social action and quiet personal prayer are only appropriate if we are responding to His call for either path, and not just what we think we should do.

Discerning that call means making a wise judgment and that should also be confirmed by other wise people in your life.

For those who are active, you cannot see Martha as your friend or Mary as your enemy, and for those who are prayerful, you cannot see Mary as your friend or Martha as your enemy.

It all depends on what God has called you personally and specifically to do at this time in your life that will help build the Kingdom of God.

You can certainly pray for special intentions, such as healing a friend from sickness, or engage in active social ministry, but you should always include in your motivation the words that Our Lord spoke in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night before His crucifixion, "...not my will ...but yours be done!"

God bless!

Called to the Joy of Love

Natural Family Planning - Supporting God's gifts of love and life in marriage
July 24 - 30, 2022

The Catholic Church teaches that...marriage is an original gift from God to humanity. Although sin entered the world damaging the marital relationship, this gift was not lost but redeemed by Christ and raised to a sacrament (see Eph 5: 28-32; see also Mt 19: 4-6). Sacred Scripture proclaims that God created humanity in "His image" as "male and female" (see Gn 1: 27). So unique is this relationship that the marital union makes of husband and wife "one flesh" (Gn 2: 24). Procreation, Scripture teaches, is a gift from God (Gn 1: 28). When spouses conceive new life, they participate in the Lord God's creative power. This is an awesome privilege and sacred responsibility!

Safeguard the Children DID YOU KNOW?

Healthy vs. unhealthy relationships

Knowing the difference between healthy and unhealthy relationships can help prevent human trafficking. Healthy relationships are based on respect, honesty, and trust. In these relationships, partners communicate and help hold healthy, safe boundaries. In unhealthy relationships, one partner holds power, forcing another to sacrifice friendships, family, and even emotional well-being. These relationships are often abusive. Talk with young adults and teenagers about these differences, how to build healthy relationships, and recognize the signs of unhealthy ones. For more information, read "Healthy vs. Unhealthy Relationships" at <https://www.missingkids.org/content/ncmec/en/blog/2022/health>
