Gospel Reflections 14th Sunday July 3rd 2022

Living in 1787 and 2022

It would be easier to be Christian if there weren't so many bad people in the world!

I hear that a lot these days. We live in a contentious time now with people upset about so many issues, like immigration, the Ukraine war, and especially Supreme Court decisions.

The founders of our country struggled with controversies too. Their 1787 Constitution response parallels our Gospel today. They respected different views while holding firm to basic principles.

In today's Gospel, Jesus trains His disciples how to preach to hostile people in nearby pagan towns. He keeps it simple; (1) first say that you come in peace and mean no harm, (2) learn their culture and why they hold the ideas they have, (3) do something good that truly helps them, (4) announce Our Lord's teachings of love and how it will make them happier, and finally (5) ...just move on if your message is not well received!

(This Gospel is the basis of my latest book, Luke 10 Leadership.)

It is number 5 that is so helpful and practical. Jesus knows that not everyone will accept His message of love. He affirms you should never let someone else's lack of faith, hope, or love, affect your faith, hope, or love. If others accept our faith, great, if not ...just move on!

Jesus always respects our freedom, even of those who reject His message. But that rejection never changed His own faith, hope, and love, nor should it ever change yours either. After all, why would you ever let someone with little or no faith affect your faith? Keep your faith strong and joyful no matter what others may do.

Jesus affirms in John 15:11 that the true sign that someone has the presence of God within them is their sense of joy. You can experience that joy by focusing on God's love for you which helps you love others no matter what they say or do. It does not matter if the world has some bad people in it. You know what to do ...and you just do it!

That remains our mission here at St. Bruno.

All of our events are meant to accomplish something good that helps people, and done with a deep sense of God's joy, and we never let anything, or anyone, ever distract us from the joy that comes in meeting Our Lord ourselves ...and helping others to do so as well.

God bless!

DID YOU KNOW?

Teach your children what to do when they are lost

Preparing your children for a situation where they might get lost or separated from you can help resolve a scary situation more quickly. Talk to your children about what to do if they ever get lost in a crowd. First, tell them to stay where they are. Teach them how to locate another safe adult — a park or store employee, someone in uniform, another mom with children — and how to ask for help. A great tip for parents is to start immediately shouting a name, age, and description of the missing child so others around you are searching too.

For more tips, read "What your child should know about being lost" at busytoddler.com/kids-get-lost.
