Gospel Reflections 30th Sunday October 29th 2023

Jesus keeps it simple

The Bible is a big book and not easy to read. Maybe you've felt frustrated by difficult verses. You are not alone. Many have felt the same way, including those in today's Gospel.

They come to Jesus with a tough question. They knew He often said wise teachings, cured the sick, walked on water, and even raised the dead, so they asked if He could summarize the whole Bible into one answer.

They ask, "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus simply responds that you are to Love God ... and love others as you love yourself. You cannot get clearer than that!

Love means that you want the authentic good for another person, as God designed us to live. Love is not a feeling; it is a decision. Love is your decision to wish for everyone the happiness that God wants for them. You do not have to like or even associate with everyone, but you can never wish anyone harm.

Must you love bad people too? Yes, but only by wanting them to repent and change so that they will finally know the happiness and love that God wants for them. After all, Jesus came to a bad place called Earth that was filled with very sinful people precisely to show everyone that life-changing love.

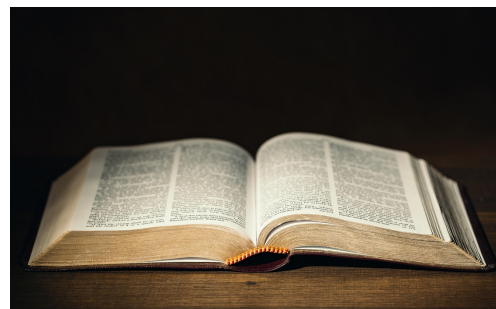

Love describes who Jesus is ...and why He is here. When you love God, others, and yourself, as He loves, you slowly discover yourself ...profoundly happy.

That is why St. Bruno parish exists; to make it easy to meet the Lord, because it is His love within you that will enable you to love yourself and others just as God loves you. God only wants your lasting happiness, in good times and in bad. That is the only love that deeply satisfies.

That is why we have our School and Religious Education programs too, so that our young people can meet the Lord and learn how to face the world today.

That is why we are fundraising to build our new Parish Hall, so that we have more opportunities to gather together as a parish and school community.

What is the simple answer to life? Love Jesus, Others ...and You! Each word begins with letters that spell J.O.Y. That kind of love is a joy to have ...and easy to remember!

God bless!

ST. BRUNO SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

Safeguard the Children DID YOU KNOW?

What are the rules about minors serving as volunteers?

It is the job of adults — not minors — to protect children from harm and abuse. However, many minors are also volunteers at school and at church, which sometimes makes it difficult to know what roles minors should play. Within programs or ministries, there should always be an adult in an official supervisory role. Minors should be helping, but never directly in charge of younger children. Meeting this standard can be challenging but it is important in keeping all children, including minor volunteers, safe. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Minors Who Are Serving or Assisting in Volunteer-Type Activities” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
